

2007 Meyers' Christmas Letter

Our family has had Christmas season themes for about three years and this year our theme is "A Portrait in Time". We started the Christmas theme idea to help us transition through another chapter of our lives. This new chapter has brought with it an increased family and descendants through marriages and births. Our hope is that while we share these chapters with you, that you will be blessed with wonderful Christmas cheer. Lets start with Doug and Beth.

Doug and Beth are transitioning through the empty nest syndrome, grey hair, and grand parenting quite nicely. Some of it hasn't been easy, but we are enjoying every minute. We spent a couple of weeks at Myrtle Beach and Ohio vacationing and visiting with family. We took a trip to Savannah, GA to trace more family history and we stayed in a bed and breakfast in the historic downtown area. We enjoy being neighborhood hosts at church. We have made many new friends while square dancing. We are active with youth education and the Florida sheep industry. As our family grows, we are continually amazed at how God works in our lives.

Amber was married to Antonio J. DiSalvatore, Jr. July 14, 2007 at Honeymoon Island, FL. The sunset beach wedding was beautiful. We are proud that Tony is part of our family. He served five years in the Navy as a submariner and is now working in his family's sign business. They are expecting a son in 2008. Amber has struggled with her diabetes this past year but is doing fine. She has worked at Sanlando Springs Animal Hospital for three years and also pet sits. They have two greyhounds and two cats. Tony and the new little one are blessings to us all. They live in Apopka, FL.

Aaron, Mandi, and Reagan are doing well. Aaron is still working on the ranch and Mandi is employed at Orlando Regional Health Systems. They are both such great parents. It has been fun watching Reagan learn new things. She is now walking and had her first birthday in November. We really enjoy being Granny and Granddaddy. They live in Apopka, FL and have a border collie and a new little kitten.

Ashley completed her AA degree in business this summer and plans to work toward her Bachelors degree next fall. She works full-time at Amazon Hose and Rubber. She enjoys being with her friends. She was baptized this July. We are very proud of Ashley and the many things she has accomplished.

We wish for you happiness and love as we continue to flip through the pages of each chapter that life has in store for us. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

All our love, Doug & Beth
